Shri P.D. Dalvi for Respondents No.1 and 2.
Shri U.V. Nikam, APP for State.

CORAM : V.M. KANADE, J.

DATED : AUGUST 2, 2006

P.C. :-

. I have perused the order passed by the Revisional Court. From the record, it can be seen that Income-Tax Department initiated proceedings against the respondents in two different courts, one at Kolhapur and the other at Sangli on the same facts. Criminal Revision Application was, therefore, filed challenging the said proceedings which were initiated at Sangli on the ground that there was clear violation of Article 20(2) of the Constitution of India. The Sessions Court in revision, accordingly, set aside the proceedings in R.C.C.No.73/99 which was pending on the file of J.M.F.C. Kolhapur.

. I do not see any infirmity or illegality in the aforesaid order.

. The Criminal Writ Petition, accordingly, is rejected.
